

THE PROMISES OF GOD

A 30-Day Journey Through
What God Has Already Said

FREE BIBLE READING PLAN

Margaret Nwakaego Usio Ministries

God has filled His Word with promises that reveal His character and remind us that He is faithful. This 30-day journey is an invitation to slow down, read one promise each day and allow its truth to settle into your heart.

Some days will speak directly to the season you are in. Others may prepare you for a season you have not yet entered. Do not rush. Return to the verse throughout the day, and let Scripture shape your thoughts, prayers and choices.

HOW TO USE THIS PLAN

Read one passage each day. Read it slowly more than once, then sit quietly with it for a few moments. Say the promise aloud, write down what stands out to you, and turn the Scripture into a personal prayer.

If you miss a day, simply continue where you stopped. This is not a test to complete perfectly; it is an opportunity to know God more deeply through what He has already said.

A simple daily question: What does this promise reveal about God, and how should I respond today?

All Scripture quotations in this plan are from the King James Version (KJV).

A CLOSING WORD

For thirty days, you have returned to what God has already said. His promises are not empty encouragement; they flow from His unchanging character. Carry these Scriptures with you beyond this plan. Return to them when you need courage, direction, peace or a reminder that you are not alone.

The journey does not end because the final day has been read. Continue opening the Word, listening for God's voice and building your life on truth that does not change.

A CLOSING PRAYER

Father, thank You for every promise in Your Word and for the faithfulness behind every word You speak. Thank You for being present with me, providing what I need, directing my steps, healing what is broken and giving me peace.

Help me not only to read Your promises, but to trust You—the One who made them. When fear, uncertainty or weariness comes, bring Your Word back to my remembrance. Teach me to live with confidence in Your character and obedience to Your voice.

Let these thirty days produce lasting fruit in me. Deepen my faith, steady my heart and draw me into a closer walk with You. May my life become a testimony that You are faithful to every generation.

In Jesus' name, Amen.
